

Horseback adventure

"Horses teach us to fly without wings and to run without fatigue."

INTIÑAN.COM

Embark on unforgettable journeys with us—your adventure starts here!

3 to 4 hour horseback adventure

(a) first stop¹

(b) second stop²

(c) third stop³

Figure: Explore ancient sites and stunning views on this horseback adventure.

¹The Temple of the Moon and the Sun is an ancient site with rich history and cultural significance.

²Inkilltambo is a significant archaeological site known for its terraces, irrigation channels, and ceremonial spaces.

³Chuspiyoq is known for its unique carved stones and the panoramic views it offers of the surrounding landscape.

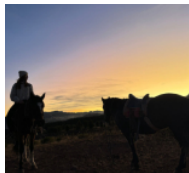

Half-day horseback adventure

(a) Katunki¹

(b) camelids²

(c) Gallop³

Figure: Experience Andean culture and landscapes on horseback, from cultural sites to thrilling gallops.

¹Apu Katunki offers a unique cultural experience and stunning landscapes. Join us to explore Andean traditions and natural beauty.

²Graze among the camelids and share the Andean culture on the spot.

³Enjoy the thrill of galloping and trotting through the beautiful Andean landscape.

Full day horseback adventure

(a) Yanaqocha¹

(b) L. Qenqo²

(c) H. Qosqo³

Figure: Explore Andean culture and landscapes on horseback: Yanaqocha's llama and alpaca breeders, fishing at Quellaqocha lagoon, and the vast Huchuy Qosqo site.

¹Yanaqocha is the first lagoon you arrive at on horseback. The surrounding area is inhabited by people who breed llamas and alpacas, offering an authentic Andean experience.

²The Quellaqocha lagoon in the town of Qenqo is a serene spot for fishing and cooking your catch amidst the mountain scenery.

³Huchuy Qosqo is a vast archaeological site comparable to Sacsayhuamán, though less well-known. It features extensive stone walls and terraces built into the hillside.

Pre-Ride Briefing and Preparation

(a) Helmet¹

(b) Water²

(c) Gloves³

Figure: Safety and comfort: Helmets, mineral water, and gloves are provided for an enjoyable horseback riding experience.

¹Safety helmets are provided for protection during the ride.

²Mineral water is provided throughout the journey to keep you hydrated.

³Gloves are provided for a better grip and comfort while riding.

*May the rhythm of the horse's hooves and the beauty of the Andean landscapes leave footprints on your heart.
Until we ride together again.*